- is passionate about teaching and learning and enabling all children to achieve success.
- can teach the full range of classroom subjects with strength in foundation phase learning areas – reading, handwriting and numeracy.
- has an excellent understanding of pedagogy and practice.
- is able to foster excellent relationships with children, parents and staff.

The candidate needs to have

- Qualified teacher status, possessing a degree/diploma in Education.
- Knowledge of and experience with Cambridge curriculum is an advantage.
- Suitable experience working with children of the relevant age in a learning environment.
- Knowledge of ICT and how it can be used effectively to support learning.
- Fluency in English.
- A knowledge and commitment to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children and young people.

Duties and accountabilities

These are not exhaustive and may vary without changing the character of the job or level of responsibility.*

- Ensure effective teaching of whole classes, groups and individuals from a Christ-like worldview, ensuring they are creating a safe learning space for all pupils.
- Identify clear teaching objectives, content, lesson structures and sequences appropriate to the subject matter and the pupils being taught. Identify and assist pupils who have special educational needs.
- Assess pupil's work and how well learning objectives have been achieved and use this assessment for future teaching.
- Prepare and present informative reports to parents.
- Take responsibility for their own professional development and to keep up to date with research and developments in pedagogy and in the subjects they teach.
- Share corporate responsibility in the implementation of school policies and practices and be actively involved in sports and cultural activities.
- Set a good example to the pupils they teach in their presentation and their personal conduct.
- Select and make good use of textbooks, ICT and other learning resources which enable teaching objectives to be met.
